

Domaine Claire Naudin & Domaine Henri Naudin-Ferrand En Primeur Release

"Winding hills and lush greenery of the Hautes Cotes de Beaune..."

It's always a pleasure to leave your hotel and set off through the winding hills and lush greenery of the Hautes Cotes de Beaune to visit Claire Naudin. The scenery is spectacular.

You leave the compact patchwork villages of the Cotes de Nuits behind and are enveloped by the beauty that surrounds you. Open roads that allow you to look onto cared for, pretty villages with pastures and animals in abundance, setting the scene and putting you in a good mood, till you arrive at Magny-les-Villers, a sleepy hamlet where Claire Naudin's winery is based.

It's a welcoming sight. Pretty flowers at the front, a gorgeous rustic office and the family winery, altogether make it a great all in one for Claire. There is plenty of space for this champion of sulphite free wine to work her magic here.

For many years, Claire has pressed along with producing seductive, super fine wines. So pure, with pinpoint precision.

CLAIRE NAUDIN

"Luscious, super gentle and the epitome of modern Burgundy..."

In her constant strive for environmentally friendly farming, the domaine is even producing their own electricity that they provide to some other properties in the village too.

Claire has continued to achieve international acclaim and demand globally for her wines is through the roof. One taste and it's so easy to see why. The wines easily stir emotions as do many of her peers in the Cotes de Nuits.

Her minuscule quantities of Echezeaux, Ladoix 1er Cru and Aloxe Corton are reserved by many a year in advance. Claire is a grower that people just don't want to lose their allocation of. The wines age beautifully and are just so perfumed and finely balanced.

There is something for everybody here. The Hautes Cotes range of red and white are incredible value and just so chiselled. The fruit is so healthy. It just wafts from the glass fulfilling all your senses...and for the price...just incredible.

We offer two labels from Claire. Domaine Claire Naudin that consists of parcels purchased by Claire, since taking over the Domaine from her father and Henri Naudin Ferrand, the original vineyards belonging to her long line of ancestors.

The Clematis is a revelation. Beautiful, sensuous wine that is easily worth double its price. It easily puts many Meursault and Puligny wines at double the price to shame. With great aging potential too. The reds are in a class of their own too. I adore them all, with the Echezeaux leading the way for many investors. It's rare to find an Echezeaux with so much poise and flair, unless you drink her partner's, Jean Yves Bizot.

We highly recommend Claire's 2022's. They are luscious, super gentle and the epitome of modern Burgundy, just so pure.

Claire Naudin and the Team

Domaine Claire Naudin 2022 by Greg Sherwood - MW

Domaine Claire Naudin - Aloxe-Corton Rouge 2022

A broody dark fruited Pinot Noir with a wealth of hidden depth and complexity. Coaxed out the glass, the wine reveals beautifully complex layers of spicy strawberry, morello cherry and juniper berry with a pronounced maritime salinity and dusty limestone depth. On the palate a wonderfully expressive spicy sapidity melts into crystalized cherries and a whole medley of red berry fruits, red currant, and a smoky liquid minerality. A really impressive core of fruit packed with vibrant energy, and all assembled beautifully. Score: 93-95

Domaine Claire Naudin - Ladoix 1er Cru La Corvee Rouge 2022

Another very fine Ladoix that boast a rich, generous aromatics packed full of damson plum, black berry, salty cassis, and picante bramble berry fruits that seamlessly fade into a delicate oak spice allure. Soft and silky in the mouth, there is a wonderful harmony and symmetry to the texture with sleek soft acids, a creamy red and black fruit concentration, and elegant silky tannins. A really exciting vintage for Ladoix. Score: 93-95

Domaine Claire Naudin - Echezeaux Grand Cru 2022

The true class and complexity of this superb wine shines in the glass with deep, complex aromatics of black cherry, black plum, and saline black currant fruits together with Claire's ever present sapidity and dusty crushed limestone minerality. Impressively pinpoint and precise on the palate, the 2022 boast great class and purity, a vibrant cool freshness and a tight knit, understated power, elegance, and intensity. This has all the building blocks for a very memorable Echezeaux indeed! Score: 94-96

Domaine Claire Naudin - Clematis Blanc 2022

This cuvee spends 12 months in oak and then three and a half months on its fine lees in tank. The aromatics show a dusty limestone minerality with pithy green pear, hints of buttered white toast and yellow grapefruit confit. A very complete wine, full on the entry but with a plush, pithy, saline white citrus and spicy Poire William pear phenolics on the long finish. Score: 91-93

Echezeaux Grand Cru 2022

"The oak lingers in the background acting as a final punctuation to a wonderfully seamless, elegant expression."

Claire Naudin, Jan 2024

Domaine Henri Naudin-Ferrand 2022 by Greg Sherwood - MW

Domaine Henri Naudin-Ferrand - Bourgogne Hautes Cotes de Beaune Blanc 2022

Piercingly fresh, intense aromatics reveals hints of sweet pear, apple purée, white blossom, and seductive honeysuckle. On the palate, the freshness and vibrant white citrus fruits melt into a pithy, stony, briney saline liquid minerality. A beautiful wine with lovely breadth and harmony indeed. Score: 90-92

Domaine Henri Naudin-Ferrand - Bourgogne - Hautes Cotes de Beaune Rouge - "2045"*

Showing a youthful, taut, slightly flinty reductive character on the nose with chocolate and raspberry nuances. The palate reveals tart glassy acids with a sleek structure, saline maritime tension, and a pithy, smoky, slightly savoury leesy limestone minerality on the finish. Super youthful now but starting to settle down beautifully. Score: 91-92

As you enter the cellar you see a large photo of Claire's father, whose legacy, Claire is rightly proud of.
